The pride of South Australia is not the mighty Adelaide Crows

It's been a difficult year for all clubs this season, but it seems no team more so than the Adelaide Crows have buckled under the pressure of fly-in-fly-out games, hubs and a compressed fixture. After losing many of their star players in the off-season including Eddie Betts, Cam Ellis-Yolmen, Alex Keath, Josh Jenkins and Sam Jacobs, the Crows said they would begin a rebuild, but no one could have expected this.

The Crows have gone from top to bottom in just three years. When there are only two South Australian teams in the competition the chances of them being on completely opposite sides of the ladder is extremely rare. So when your cross-town rivals Port Adelaide are the ladder-leaders while the Adelaide Crows are 18th and bottom there really isn't much to smile about.

It's been a challenging season for Crows fans to watch loss after loss after loss. Their performance against the Sydney Swans in Round 1 was probably their best and most convincing chance of taking home the win, but need I remind you that too was a loss. Rory Laird has been one of the few positives to take away from their games. He has been excellent on the field since moving to the midfield providing pressure to a side with very little and was the leading disposal winner against the Pies in Round 11 with 37 possessions for the night.

Laird has really led the way of this youthful side. Unfortunately, that's where the good news ends.

The Adelaide Crows have made several changes to their list, recruiting Ben Keays ex-Brisbane player, Ben Crocker ex-Collingwood player and former Port Adelaide ruckman Billy Frampton. Rookie Ben Keays has been quite serviceable after spending most of his AFL career playing in the reserves at Brisbane.

The Crows have had an AFL-high eight debutants and used 37 players across the course of the season, which is more than any other club. While it has been excellent to give so many young players more experience in the AFL and more opportunity to develop, it does seem odd that some of their more-experienced players are not making the team. Now when a player like Bryce Gibbs and even Billy Frampton to an extent, cannot even make the team when that team is losing every week, something must be wrong. Especially when these two players would give the Crows a boost in two areas they seem to be lacking in, a target inside-50 and a strong, clearance-winning midfielder.

This season the Crows have had many big outs, with Rory Sloane, Taylor Walker, Tom Doedee, Daniel Talia, Tom Lynch, Brad Crouch, Wayne Milera, Riley Knight and Jordan Gallucci all sidelined for extended periods. The Crows have struggled in all areas on the field, their depleted list would not have helped but they just seem to be lacking, not running as hard, no consistency and are really struggling to string together four-quarters of tough, pressure-intense, contested and confident football. The Crows are rated 18th in the league in all major statistics culminating in points for and points against, which is very disappointing, especially given just a few years ago they had one of the best midfields in the competition. Injury concerns aside, the Crows need to completely change their game plan for the remainder of the season if they have any shot of winning a single game and not being the first club in 56 years to be winless for an entire season. They have to create contests, win clearances and set-up better defensively. They are only averaging four marks inside-50 a game and need to improve in the midfield exponentially. They are letting teams too easily take the ball out the middle and quickly move it into their (Crows') defensive-50 and score. Changes also need to be made off-field.

by
Madison Mifsud-Ure

It's been over 380 days since the Crows last secured victory and while it is a feat, it's one I'm sure they are not proud of. With a current record of zero wins and 12 losses, the question remains: will it be a winless season for the Crows? For some reason I have a feeling we might see them achieve the biggest upset this year, beating Geelong at home. Now you may ask why I would think that, but given the Crows are highly underestimated, they literally have nothing to lose, and they will want to prove everyone wrong, this might just be their game to win. Nevertheless, the Crows will no doubt finish bottom of the ladder and receive the wooden spoon for the first time in their 30-year history.

Predictions for the end of season

After 12 rounds of footy so far, we've seen what most teams have to offer and, considering there are only 6 rounds left, now calls for a perfect time to place predictions for the minor premiers, premierships winners, and the Brownlow and Coleman medals.

by
Foti Mantis

As for the minor premiers, I don't think I can place my bets on Port. They're a terrific team, and they're bloody hell fun to watch, but with Geelong and West Coast finally hitting their good form, as well as Brisbane only being behind by percentage, it will be incredibly tough for the Power to retain first place. Out of those four teams just mentioned, West Coast and Brisbane have much harder upcoming fixtures than Geelong and Port. I believe that Port will hold on to first place, and I'm putting my confidence in them to become minor premiers. They've lost three games this season against Brisbane, St Kilda and Geelong, all top 5 teams, and their next few fixtures are all games that they should win. It's hard to refute the fact that they are the best team in the league when they're playing their style of footy, but it's only their occasional lapses of overconfidence that usually cost them important games.

But when we talk about finals, that's a different story. West Coast are the biggest threat to any team right now. But first, let me predict the top 8 finalists. This one is pretty simple, I think those in the top 8 right now will stay in the top 8, but the Giants could make a last minute surge into the finals with players such as Toby Greene, Shane Mumford and Matt De Boer coming back from injury in a few weeks' time. For the Grand Final, I believe, or wish for that matter, that it turns out to be a Port Vs West Coast match. This, in my opinion, would be the best final any footy fan could ask for (for revengeful reasons). But, regardless of who West Coast face in the final, I think it's fair to say that they could well go on and win the Premiership against any team in the form that they've found since round 5, as well as their experience in the finals before.

Finally, the Brownlow and Coleman medals. At this stage, the favourite for the Brownlow is Lachie Neale. Arguably, he should have won it last year, but his chances are probably the highest they've ever been, with other star players finding it difficult to perform to the best of their abilities this season (as a result of restrictions and so forth). Neale, however, has showcased his consistency and the impact he has on his Lions team. And, as my last prediction, I think the Coleman medal will be awarded to Tom Hawkins, who, in the last three games, has scored 14 goals. Trailing close behind him is Josh Kennedy, but I have to put my hope in the Geelong veteran who is arguably having his best season of footy yet.

Minor Premiers: Port Adelaide

Premiership Winners: West Coast

Brownlow Medal: Lachie Neale

Coleman Medal: Tom Hawkins

Stop and Go

In the last few years, Australian Football has taken a frightening path towards becoming a stop-and-go game. One could argue that it has always been a type of game that is centered around winning stoppages and controlling possession through marks. But, when you think of the term 'footy,' and maybe even when you try to describe the sport to an unfamiliar spectator, what comes to mind is the excitement, speed and aggressiveness associated with what some would call 'a dangerous sport.'

by
Foti Mantis

When we think of footy, we don't think of stoppages. We think of counter-attacking football, players with elite speed, teams with incredible ball movement; but, most especially, we think of goals.

The worry for fans of footy is whether the AFL is trying to mould Australia's national sport into a replica of American Football. The NFL (National Football League) is one of the most watched sports in the world and millions of people tune in to the Super Bowl on TV every year. On that same day, some of the world's biggest brands sponsor the event and pay millions of dollars for a single commercial during the breaks. The half-time show alone is enough for the event to attract global attention, especially on social media platforms like Twitter and YouTube. From the AFL's perspective, this is something that Australia should be aiming towards. In this case, they are right. But it is a fine line between global exposure and the ruin of a national sport.

As mentioned before, footy is a unique sport in the sense that it asks players to put themselves on the line for their team's success (without protective gear). However, the sport has begun to ask players to do something else; that is, play competitively, but control your aggression. As a player, it's difficult to enforce that type of message into your performance. Aggression is an important part of this sport, and the constant rule changes to 'protect' players seems to be doing more harm to the game than good.

Disregarding this season, the amount of goals scored in each game has been dropping dramatically. In 2018, the AFL's average scores were the lowest ever seen for 52 years (83.1 points per game). Unless it's a total blowout, you won't see a game where both teams kick 20 goals in a competitive match of footy. Gone are those days. Instead, now it's considered lucky if a single game can consist of 20 goals (in total).

With this in mind, it's important that we recognize what a 'stop-and-go' style of play could do to the game. Alas, these continuing reinforcements of 'protective footy' rules do two things: slow down the pace of the game by rewarding more free kicks, resulting in less goals; and, most concerningly, pushes us closer towards a mimic of American-style Football.

Putting the 'national' in Australian Rules Football

If there is one thing this AFL season has taught us, it is that the AFL can survive without Victoria. In fact, the AFL has proved its adaptability in the strangest of circumstances by taking the game out of its usual 'hub'. Naturally, the VFL is the reason football is predominately played in Victoria during normal AFL seasons. However, COVID has created recurring conversations of Victoria's main role, ultimately debating how the AFL should operate in future.

by
Kayla Voss

The AFL is the Australian Football League. In other words, no longer does the game fall under the Victorian Football League (VFL), but rather is a national competition. Obviously, there are reasons for why Victoria is the main stage for the game; out of eighteen teams, ten are Victorian based teams. Over the years, more interstate teams have joined the league, with GWS being the most recent in 2012. The number of teams located in Victoria is a strong argument for why the home and away rounds can have up to five games in Victoria per round. However, the argument is not to move or relocate these teams, but rather to recognise other states for big AFL nights like the Brownlow, the NAB draft and, of course, the Grand Final.

Daniel Andrews, the premier of Victoria, only emphasised the unchanging nature of the game and the outdated view of Victoria as AFL's central hub. Last Friday, Mr Andrews told press that he is looking for compensation from the AFL in the future due to the expectation that the Grand Final will be hosted interstate this year. This statement is ridiculous for a number of reasons. In terms of COVID, he should be more focused on taking care of Victorians and eradicating the virus. In terms of the AFL, the idea that the AFL owes Victoria, even though the Grand Final is already contracted to be held at the MCG until 2057, is preposterous.

Understandably, Victoria will lose a lot of economic compensation because of the AFL Grand Final's revenue. Yet, considering Victoria hosts the event every year, he is hardly in a position to argue this year's loss. Unfortunately, the loss of money and jobs is a part of 2020, and we have all been affected by the virus one way or another.

This year's Grand Final will be hosted in any state other than Victoria, which should be viewed as an opportunity rather than a loss. Not only should it be considered an opportunity for another state, but also an opportunity for the future of the game. It is not a new argument: whether or not the AFL Grand Final should be on a rotational interstate basis. However, this year has certainly emphasised why it would be brilliant for the evolution of the game.

Without a reason, other states will not invest in an event as big as the AFL Grand Final. This is the issue. Ultimately, the argument always comes back to how many people will be there to witness one of the events of the year. The MCG houses 100,000 people. An exceptional stage for any event. Of course the biggest event in the AFL calendar should be played in front of as many people as possible. However, the only reason the MCG is the ultimate stage is because every other state has never had reason to invest in a stadium of the same stature. If the AFL presented a contract for the Grand Final to be hosted around Australia, it would certainly provide state governments a solid reason to invest in the event.

It is the event that brings people from around the country together. It is the roar of the crowd and the excitement of the day. Every state should have the opportunity to experience this. Australian Rules Football is a national sport, loved by so many around the country. It seems only fitting for fans from all states to enjoy the big day.

Amato's 5th Quarter

Will the Cats choke...again?

Life could not be better for the Cats, at least on the field anyway. After a sloppy 1-2 start, Geelong have won four of their last five games by an average of 46 points and now sit third on the AFL ladder at 8-4. Every stat indicates they are the best team in the competition at the moment. They sit first for clearances which is congruent with the likes of Patrick Dangerfield and Captain Joel Selwood who just keep on keeping on.

by
Daniel Emilio Amato

They are first for marks inside 50 with Tom Hawkins dominating their forward line, cameo appearances from Gary Rohan aren't hurting their stocks either, and Geelong also happen to be the highest scoring team in the league with 132 goals, Hawkins booting 30 of those to lead the Coleman medal to this point. After their dominant performance against the previously red-hot Port Adelaide, the football world is now talking them up as the new premiership favourites. While Geelong have certainly been impressive, and absolutely deserve these lofty expectations... let's not forget it is not unusual for this sort of pressure to get to them.

Geelong have been a consistently great side for many years, having missed the finals just twice since 2004, making four grand finals and winning three flags during this time. However, since their last premiership in 2011... September has not been a fun time for Cats' fans. Since the 2011 victory, Geelong has made the finals every season bar one (2015), and out of the seven finals series they have been part of, five have been top four finishes. Eleven finals have been played altogether, and they have produced only four wins. Therefore, it is more than fair to suggest Geelong are proven finals chokers.

What was worse? The 2012 Elimination Final loss to Fremantle despite being hot favourites? What about the 2013 Preliminary defeat to Hawthorn despite going into their three-quarter-time huddle 20 points ahead? Could the straight-set exit in 2014 take the cake? Also, let's not forget the 2016 Preliminary Final thumping by Sydney despite having a week off... and possibly worst of all, the 2019 finals debacle after winning the minor premiership... get the picture? The past should not dictate the present, but sometimes the pressure of past failures and what happened in previous years does make a small mental impact. Chris Scott's men are possibly have their last chance at a premiership... with the likes of Dangerfield, Ablett, Hawkins, Taylor and Selwood all over 30, the list could be about to turnover and eventually will need to rejuvenate.

The AFL system is set up to allow a club to be at the top, but eventually to fall down the ladder and restart. Geelong have been able to buck that trend and always remained within that premiership window, but a decade of missed opportunities and 'could have, would have, should have' moments have spoiled their seasons. Is this season finally different? It may be, but playing well in the home and away season is one thing, being able to replicate that in finals is another. Geelong should know that better than anyone....

THE DIVISION 1 Match Previews

Goodwood Saints v Athelstone

Goodwood Saints have continued their impressive second half to the season, defeating the Raggies by 109-points, recording their fourth consecutive win. After losing their first three matches of the season, the Saints have found their mojo, and are now sitting fifth on percentage. It was another difficult day for the Raggies, with a lack of key personnel proving costly for the reigning Division two premiers. A ten goal to three first quarter set the game up for the Saints, effectively squashing Athelstone's spirit. George Thring and Jacob Hughes booted five majors each for the home side, while Nicholas Burgess kicked three. For the visitors, captain Luke Rander was the only multiple goal kicker, slotting two majors. Tom Carter had his best game of the season for the Saints, while Hughes, Nick Favretto and Thring were all outstanding contributors. For the visitors, Kane Nurton, James Davies and Ben Rogers toiled hard on a difficult day. Both teams will enjoy a bye this weekend.

Port District v Rostrevor OC

The ROCs have recorded an impressive, 25-point win over a fancied Port District side at Largs Reserve on Saturday. It was a must win game for the men from Campbelltown, with their finals aspirations hanging in the balance. In what was a low scoring, and tight tussle for the majority of the game, a six goal to three final quarter by the visitors saw them gain the ascendancy, and come away with the win. It was a missed opportunity for Districts, who had the chance to climb to second on the ladder. James Batty was a handful up forward for the ROCs defence, with the competition's leading goal kicker adding four majors to his season's total. For the visitors, Nick Murphy booted a match winning four goals, with Michael Coad and Patrick Dawson both kicking two majors. Jack Gaffney's consistent year continued on the weekend, winning plenty of the ball for his side. He was well support by; Luke McInerny, James Batty and Mitchell Gaffney. For the ROCs, Nick Murphy was outstanding, while; Same Jonas, Tim Baccanello and Murphy Short were all influential in their sides victory. Both sides will have the bye this weekend, preparing themselves for the final two minor round matches.

Adelaide University v Brighton Bombers

Adelaide University's season is effectively over after inaccurate kicking saw them defeated by top of the ladder, Brighton Bombers, by a singular point on Saturday. Trailing by three straights kicks at the final break, the Blacks kicked four goals six too two goals one, but wasn't enough to over-run a gritty Bombers outfit. Ben Edwards kicked three majors for the home side, while Maris Olekalns kicked two. For the visitors, Jay Boyle slotted three goals, while Shane Harvey chipped in with two. Olekalns was terrific through the midfield for the home side, while; Ben Adams, Jack Keynes and Jack Strange all battled manfully. For the visitors, Tarquin Brown, Otis Carthy, Boyle and Scott Nerlich were influential in their teams heart-stopping victory.

Round 7 Preview

St Peters OC v Payneham Norwood Union

SPOC welcome the inform Payneham NU to Caterer Oval on Saturday. After a slow start, the Falcons are coming into their own, whereas SPOC have been inconsistent of late. A win for the Falcons will see them leapfrog Rostrevor and Goodwood to sit in the five, while a SPOCs victory will see them solidify themselves in second place. This should be a terrific expedition of football, and it will be another tight affair.

SPOCs by 8 points

Prince Alfred OC v Unley Mercedes Jets

In our final match of the round, Princes take on the Jets at Park 9. PAOC has it all to play for, with this season's favourites struggling to find continuity, sitting fourth on the ladder. It is all about gaining more experience in this division for the Jets, and Saturday will be a good chance to test themselves against one of the best sides in the competition. I think PAOC will be far too strong for a gallant Unley side.

Prince Alfred OC by 45 points.

THE DIVISION 2 Match Previews

PHOS Camden 12.10-82 defeated Broadview 13.3-81 by one point at Camden Oval

PHOS Camden came away with a crucial victory at home, fighting back in the last quarter to steal a one-point win. Broadview held the lead at every change but could not make it count when it mattered most as an impressive six-goal final term by PHOS sealed the deal. Nick Ramsay and Hamish Gordon were amongst the best for PHOS with two goals apiece while Samuel Inglis's dominant performance earned him best-on-ground honours. Jack Fergus, Kobi Russell and Corey Davey each booted home three goals for Broadview but their efforts were not enough to get their side across the line.

Tea Tree Gully 10.14-74 defeated Henley 7.10-52 by 22 points at Henley Memorial Oval

Tea Tree Gully upset Henley in a top-of-the-table clash to move closer to that coveted top spot. Henley came into the contest undefeated and as favourites once again, but Tea Tree Gully clearly had other plans. Tea Tre Gully got their game going in the second term and did not look back as they led by 11 points at half-time before controlling the rest of the game. Dylan Schoenmakers was a match-winner for Tea Tree Gully with his classy display which included two goals while Ryan Spittle also contributed solidly with two goals of his own. Jackson Smith continued his dominant form up forward for Henley with a three-goal haul in a disappointing loss for the ladder-leading Henley.

Sacred Heart OC 14.14-98 defeated Seaton Ramblers 5.8-38 by 60 points at Sacred Heart Middle School

Seaton proved no match for the Hearts as they put on a clinic from start to finish, leading at every change to run away with a percentage-boosting win. The Hearts ran out to a 25-point lead at the end of the first quarter and did not look back. Six goals from Lachlan Button was the story of the day as Seaton's defenders had no answer. Alex Scott also impressed in a promising performance for the Hearts. Brady Wild chipped in with two goals for Seaton but not enough contributors cost them. The victory sees the Hearts cement their spot in third on the ladder while Seaton fall back to 6th due to percentage.

Old Ignatians 13.12-90 defeated Salisbury North 6.10-46 by 44 points at Salisbury North Oval

Old Ignatians continued Salisbury North's woes as they ran away with a comfortable 44-point win. Both sides were woeful in front of goal in the first term with 11 behinds and just two goals scored between them. Old Ignatians worked their way to a strong 21-point lead at half-time and did not look back from there. Cameron Ortlepp was clinical up forward for Old Ignatians with a four-goal effort while Patrick Kerin also starred with three goals. Timothy Bigg continued his impressive form with a best-on-ground display. Jake Russo impressed for Salisbury North, but they failed to deliver again this round and fall to 1-6 on the year while Old Ignatians move to 4-3 and very much amidst the finals race.

Scotch OC 18.18-126 defeated Glenunga 11.7-73 by 53 points at Scotch College

Scotch OC dominated at home with a much-needed 53-point win over a winless Glenunga outfit. Glenunga have shown promise in recent rounds but were once again outclassed by a Scotch side still fighting for finals contention. Scotch ran out to a 20-point lead at the end of the first term, only building on that as the game carried on. 11 players hit the scoreboard for Scotch with Warrick McGinty's four goal haul the best of the day while Peter Rolfe also starred with his three goals. Michael McMahon fought hard all day for Glenunga and made his mark with four goals while Lincoln Bennett and Harry Prosser each impressed with three goals apiece. Glenunga remain entrenched on the bottom of the ladder without a win while Scotch move to 3-4 on the season and in touch with the rest of the final's contenders.

This week in Division 2

Old Ignatians vs Henley at Karen Rolton Oval

Henley disappointed in round 7 with a loss at home to Tea Tree Gully and they will be expected to bounce back with a win against Old Ignatians.

Henley by 15 points.

Seaton Ramblers vs PHOS Camden at Pedlar Reserve

PHOS sit just ahead of Seaton on the ladder with only percentage separating them. This game will go down to the wire and have ramifications on finals positions. Seaton by nine points.

Tea Tree Gully vs Glenunga at Pertaringa Oval

Tea Tree Gully again proved themselves as genuine premierships contenders with an impressive win against Henley on their home deck. They will get the job done comfortably again against Glenunga. Tea Tree Gully by 50 points.

Sacred Heart OC vs Scotch OC at Sacred Heart Middle School

Scotch were solid in a strong win over Glenunga but Sacred Heart OC at home present a whole different challenge. Sacred Heart OC by 34 points.

Broadview vs Salisbury North at Broadview Oval

Broadview went down in a nail biter to PHOS Camden and will be keen to bounce back at home in against a struggling Salisbury North outfit.

Broadview by 29 points.

THE DIVISION 3 Match Previews

Westminster OS 13.9 87 def CBC Old Collegians 7.18 60

It was a second quarter blitz from Westminster that saw them grab a hold of the game and eventually claim the win against an inaccurate CBC. Westminster trailed at the first break but went into half-time comfortably ahead after CBC managed only two points in the second quarter compared to the home sides five goals. The Dolphins had three more scoring shots than the home side but lost the game by a comfortable margin of 27 points. Jake Johansen and Tom Pickering kicked two goals each and Raymond claimed best on ground honours, but home ground advantage and accurate kicking saw Westminster come out on top. The Dragons had three players kicking three goals each, Bonutto, Kenny and Fielke. Of those, Fielke was most influential, claiming the best on ground votes for the second game running in an impressive performance. Neither team will be playing finals football but Westminster now find themselves with a respectable 2-4 record whereas CBC slip to one win in their seven games.

Golden Grove 18.15 123 def Edwardstown 5.5 35

Edwardstowns inconsistent form reared its head again this week as they were battered by top of the table Golden Grove. The Townies have struggled to hold form throughout the year. At their best they have looked like a top team but although many wouldn't expect them to beat Golden Grove, few would have predicted a near 90 point belting. Thomas "Taco Tuesday" Tacono was back in the goals, racking up another back of four whilst Ingram extended his wild run of form with another best on ground showing. Michael Walters also managed to bag himself four goals for Grove who remain undefeated so far this season. Edwardstown had five individual goalkickers and Rosenzweig was judged best afield for the travelling side who now find themselves in a predicament. Edwardstown remain in the top four but all teams around them have now had their bye, meaning they all have a game in hand on Edwardstown. Flinders Park are one win behind Edwardstown but run into Plympton and CBC in the final two rounds which should both be wins. This makes next week colossal for Edwardstowns finals hopes, they need to beat Westminster to give themselves a big chance of making the five.

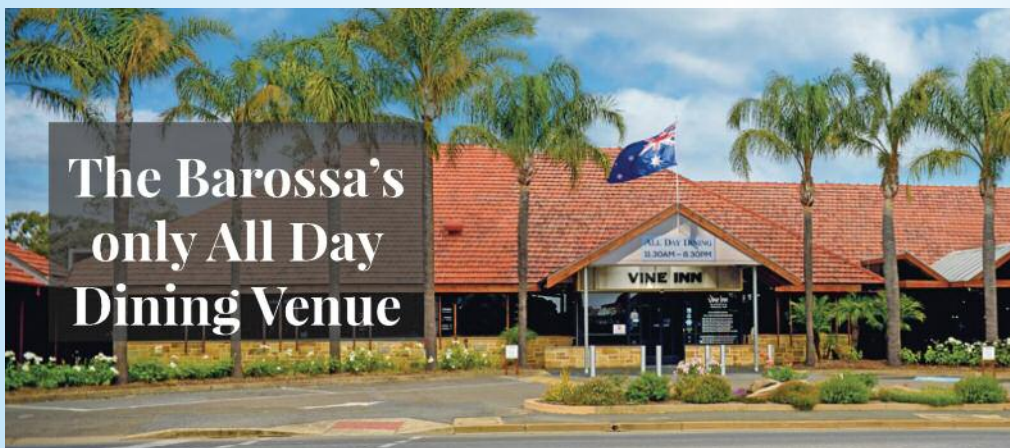

Gaza 10.9 69 def by Modbury 13.12 90

Modbury solidified their spot in second place this week by taking care of business at Gaza, running out 21 point victors. Philips and Allard kicked three each for the hawks and Lauder was the only multiple goalscorer for the home side who now find themselves in sixth position and out of a finals spot. Lauder also claimed best on ground for Gaza, followed by Heintze and Todd Culley who has managed to find himself in the best players three weeks running. Gaza now have an even record of 3-3 and now find themselves in a three horse race with two spots on the line. They are equal on points with Flinders Park and two points behind Edwardstown. If Gaza can pull out a win next round against North Haven then they will go a long way to guaranteeing themselves finals football. Modbury won't miss finals and sit 5-1, but they run into their biggest test yet next week. There is a lot of history between two powerhouses of the North East in Golden Grove and Modbury and they go head to head as first and second on the ladder. A massive clash awaits in round seven.

Plympton 4.10 34 def by North Haven 18.20 128

North Haven have bounced back to form after their loss to Flinders Park with a massive 94 point victory over bottom of the table Plympton. It was a game that North Haven expected to win but their form has been wavering of late so this one will no doubt be a massive confidence boost. They still didn't kick straight, amassing 20 behinds from their 38 scoring shots, however it mattered not as they dealt the dogs their sixth loss of the season. Mark Rowe kicked five goals for the visitors and claimed the best on ground honours while McCafferty helped himself to four majors. For the home side, it was another disappointing result. Jake Seadon kicked his first two goals of his season and Williams was awarded best on ground. With no threat of relegation, Plympton still have a major role to play in how this season shakes out. They face Flinders Park next week and Gaza the following week, two teams vying for fourth and fifth on the ladder. A win in either of those can and will change the layout of the finals.

This week in Division 3

Edwardstown vs Westminster OS

Make no mistake, if Edwardstown lose this they may find themselves outside of the top five come finals time. Flinders Park and Gaza are a win behind Edwardstown, but both have a game in hand as the Townies will play their last regular season game this Saturday against Westminster. With the bye in the last round, this is their last chance to get points on the board and solidify a finals appearance. Against Westminster, they should be able to do so, although the Dragons claimed their second scalp of the years, knocking off CBC last week. They will have confidence going into this one but ultimately Edwardstown should come out on top. In saying that, a lot will depend on who Edwardstown have out on the park. They are no longer playing under Justin Calderbank and are no stranger to changes in the lineup due to injury this year. Westminster are a chance here, but at home Edwardstown should get the win. Edwardstown by 22

North Haven vs Gaza

The Magpies find themselves back on the winners list after taking care of Plympton last week but they face a stern test when they welcome Gaza this coming Saturday. Gaza find themselves outside of the five and will be desperate to claw their way back in before the end of the home and away season. North Haven, at this point in time, simply can't kick straight. They've kicked 34.52 in the last three weeks and will need to turn that around if they want to play a large part in the remainder of the season. The home side have talent and hard work, though, and will expect nothing short of a win here. Gaza are young and hungry to make an impact this season so I expect them to push North Haven here but the magpies should be too strong on their home deck. North haven by 14.

Modbury vs Golden Grove

The Div 3 Derby, Modbury welcome Golden Grove this week and it's no secret both sides would love to pull one over on their north-eastern rivals. To make it even juicier, these two find themselves at number one and two on the ladder with only one loss between them for the entire year. Golden Grove will be favourites heading in and rightfully so. They have beaten all challengers seemingly without breaking a sweat so far and will look to do the same this weekend. They have an elite midfield and are dangerous going forward, but Modbury have proven to be more than capable of putting a winning score on the board. This should be the biggest test for Golden Grove so far, but is one that they will be well and truly up for given the history between these two. Golden Grove to win here and lock up top spot for the season. Grove by 42.

Plympton vs Flinders Park

Whilst this looks like a foregone conclusion, there is still room for one big upset this season and I wouldn't be shocked if this was the game it came in. Flinders Park are red hot and have stormed back into finals contention after starting the year 0-3 whereas Plympton are still without a win. The only thing standing between the Reds and finals footy is complacency and Plympton are dying to claim a big scalp this year, this could be it. It would be against the odds, though. The introduction of Luke Trenorden has reinvigorated this Parks side who have a fully functioning forward line and a young, quick team looking to make amends for a poor start to the year. They should win here and win well, but the doggies are desperate and won't go down without a fight. Flinders Park by 37.

Gepps Cross v SMOSH West Lakes

Gepps Cross have bolstered their finals chances after defeating SMOSH West Lakes by eight-points at Duncan Fraser Reserve. The Rams were focused from the outset, with their five-point quarter time lead growing out to nine-points at half-time. Following the major break, the Lions fought back to hold the Rams to one goal in the third term, with the away team leading by just six-points heading into the final quarter. In a high-scoring finish in which 12 goals were scored the Rams came out on top to secure their third victory for the season. Graham Hampton was a strong presence up forward for the Rams, with five goals, while Jeff Ladd kicked a respectable four goals. For the Lions Rhys Crampton had a promising game with four goals, while Dylan Olive kicked three for the fifth placed team. Matthew Schmidt had no trouble finding the football for the Rams, while Stephen Tahana used his skills to great effect. Throughout the game Matthew Harper and Darcy Ginever tried their best to ignite the Lions team.

Morphettville Park v Pembroke OS

Pembroke OS are edging closer to their best form, after they defeated Morphettville Park by 15-points at Kellett Reserve. The win sees the Kings remain undefeated, with only two rounds remaining before finals. In the first half the Kings quickly grabbed momentum and were able to kick accurately, as they secured a 22-point lead at half-time. When play resumed in the second-half the Roos were able to put in a more competitive effort, with the Kings only kicking four goals for the half. Alex Forster was the key-target up forward for the Kings, with seven goals, while Matthew Robertson and Thomas Evans chipped in with two each. Matthew Duldig was valiant in defeat, with four goals for the Roos, while Nathan Davies booted three. Nicholas Worrall produced another best-on-ground performance, while Jaiden Pengelly showed his poise under pressure for the Kings. The strong games of Sam Walker and Liam Lusty was an encouraging sign for the Roos future.

Woodville South v Hope Valley

Hope Valley remain in the top-two, following their 32-point win over Woodville South at Ledger Oval. The Demons looked set to hit finals in top-form, with their forward line functioning beautifully. In a tight first quarter the Cats matched the Demons intensity, with just two-points separating the teams at quarter time. The second quarter saw the Demons gain some ascendancy, with their lead stretching out to twenty-points at half-time, before they demonstrated their composure and scoring power in the second half. Matthew Min continued his electric form, with nine goals, while Jayke Hellmanns kicked three majors for the Demons. Shaun Smith led the Cats forward brigade, with three goals, while Jordan Carrocci and Ramah Ahmed were two of the nine Cats players who kicked a single goal. Along with Min, Demons' Jamie Dowling and John Martin were key contributors in the win, while Dwayne Wilson and Jarrad Brusnahan showed plenty of fight for the Cats.

Pulteney v Mitcham

Mitcham have risen to third on the ladder, after they defeated Pulteney by 46 points at Morgan Oval. Despite putting in a more competitive effort than in round six, the Navy Blues struggled to challenge the impressive Hawks outfit. The Hawks started the game full of energy, with their strong defence restricting the Navy Blues to three goals in the first half, while their forward line registered nine majors heading into the major break. In the third quarter the Hawks were able to increase their lead to 52 points, before the Navy Blues kicked six goals in the last term to finish the game in a respectable manner. Maxwell Smyth enjoyed a great day in attack with eight goals for the Hawks, while Simon Tucker and Daniel Cross offered support with three majors each. Bradley Clark was the dominant forward for the Navy Blues with three goals, while Dale Dunn and Tyson Currie both snagged two goals. Smyth's performance was well complemented by some sturdy efforts from Lachlan Hall and Chad Ytsma for the Hawks, while Alex Forbes and Joshua Giddings were resolute for the Navy Blues.

Walkerville v Kilburn

Walkerville have recorded a massive percentage boost, following their 117-point win over the bottom placed Magpies at Walkerville Recreation Ground. The win sees the Panthers reclaim fourth position and remain a strong chance for finals. The Magpies never troubled the Panthers, with the 37-point quarter time margin setting the tone for the remainder of the game. A goalless third quarter to the Magpies saw the Panthers demonstrate their finals credentials, with the margin 99-points at the final break, before it blew out in the last quarter. The goalkicking was equally spread amongst the Panthers, with Luke Westbury and James Boston kicking five and Bradley Griffiths kicking four. In a game in which they had limited scoring opportunities, Darren Francis and Todd Peirce had solid games with two goals each. The Panthers had several contributors on the day, with Tim Woolford and Sean Kuerschner delivering the ball to their forwards with procession, while Dustin Knaggs and Corey Solly never stopped trying for the Magpies.

This week in Division 4

Kilburn v Pulteney

Kilburn will host Pulteney this Saturday at Blair Athol Reserve, with both teams eager to claim a win after disappointing seasons. At their home ground the Magpies will be keen to give their supporters some cause for celebration and create some positive energy heading into pre-season. The insipid performance of the Magpies in round seven, should inspire them to claim their second victory this season.

Kilburn by 12 points.

Hope Valley v Gepps Cross

The in-form Demons face the Rams at Hope Valley Oval this Saturday. Led by the Division Four leading goalkicker Matthew Min, the Demons will be hoping to remain in the top two and head into the top of the table clash with Pembroke OS full of confidence in round nine. The home ground advantage will see the Demons keep their positive form rolling-on, with a win in a close encounter.

Hope Valley by 7 points.

Mitcham v Woodville South

Woodville South will travel to Thomas Farms Oval to take on Mitcham, with the Hawks desperate to consolidate a top four position. The Roo's will be wishing to re-join the winners list and upset the Hawks, as they build towards the 2021 season. This will be a lot closer than what the ladder positions suggest, with the Roo's expected to be competitive but just lack the class of the Eagles.

Mitcham by 21 pts

Walkerville v Morphetville Park

Following their comprehensive win over Kilburn, the Panthers will be wanting to continue their winning form when they play Morphetville Park at Walkerville Recreation Ground. If the Roo's can win they'll keep their finals chances alive and head into round nine against SMOSH West Lakes full of confidence. The Panthers should register their fifth win for the season and remain in the top four.

Walkerville by 28 points.

SMOSH West Lakes v Pembroke OS

After being narrowly beaten by Gepps Cross, SMOSH West Lakes will be hoping to bounce-back against the undefeated Kings at West Lakes Shore Oval. As the Kings have had multiple close encounters this season, they'll be eager to get a comfortable win over a fellow finals' contender. Due to the form of Alex Forster the King's should keep their undefeated run going and cement themselves in the top two.

Pembroke OS by 15 points.

THE DIVISION 5 Match Previews

Smithfield v Rosewater

Rosewater played host to a red-hot Smithfield and after a promising start which saw Rosewater lead by four points at quarter time. It was all one-way traffic as the Panthers ran riot, kicking six goals to none in the second term to take a 37 point lead into the main break. Things didn't get any better for Rosewater after half time, as the visitors piling on a further ten goals in the second half to run out comfortable 83 points winners, 19.15 129 to 6.10 46. Frederick Agius and Luke Buckby shone bright for Smithfield kicking five and four goals respectively. With Benjamin Geytenbeek and Swedenson Hanuman amongst the many contributors for the visitors. Adam Carroll, Daniel Harris and Brock Sinapis all battled gamely for the Bulldogs despite the heavy defeat. The victory sees Smithfield cement themselves in the five and still in the race for a top three finish. As for Rosewater, the loss keeps them at the foot of the ladder and with only two more rounds left to be played this season, the Bulldogs chances of claiming the unwanted 'wooden spoon' is looking extremely likely.

Pooraka v West Croydon

The struggling West Croydon Hawks travelled to Lindblom Park to face Pooraka on Saturday afternoon. The Hawks, who were on a four-match losing streak, miraculously came from behind to pull off a surprising victory over the Bulls, winning 12.10 82 to 11.8 74 by 8 point. Bradley Batten, who kicked all three goals for the Bulls last week, kicked another three goals, whilst Frank Timpano and James Chakiris both looked good for the Bulls. The Hawks were led by Jaydn Gagliardi who was outstanding in his return after missing the last two games. The ever-improving Reece Johnston, adding another three goals whilst Jacob Sumner, Luke Woodcock and Steven Cooper all kicked two. For the Hawks, not only does this victory end their four-game losing streak, but it also moves them into sixth with an outside chance of still playing finals. For the home side the lost drops them to seventh and they would need a miracle to make the finals from here.

Salisbury v Fitzroy

In-form Salisbury played host to ninth placed Fitzroy, who were coming off their first victory of the 2020 season the previous week. The Magpies all but put the game to bed in the first quarter as they kicked six unanswered goals to lead by 36 points at the break. Things only go worst for Fitzroy in the second quarter as Salisbury kicked another nine and by half-time were 86 points in front. The home fans would have been delirious as Salisbury went on to record a massive 144 point victory winning 27.9 171 to 3.9 27. Debutant Mitchell Slater kicked six goals with Sean Hee chipping in with four of his own for the Pies. Reece Hocking and Ryan Paget starred in a total team effort. Not much went right for the Lions, but the coach would have been pleased with the contributions from Jordan Bohnsack, Tyrese Pickett-Miller and Matthew Wiese. The 24-goal defeat is Fitzroy's heaviest of the season, whilst for Salisbury the victory keeps them in fourth just ahead of their next opponent Smithfield.

Kenilworth v Eastern Park

Kenilworth welcomed Eastern Park to Simonds Park on Saturday afternoon and it was the home side that recorded a 42 point victory, 17.16 118 to 11.10 76. The Kookaburras jumped out of the blocks to set up convincing 26 point lead at quarter time. Eastern Park started to work their way into the game in the second quarter and were still well and truly in the contest at half-time despite trailing by 29 points. However, Kenilworth dominated the third quarter to open up a comfortable 52 point lead heading into the final term. Whilst Eastern Park showed some fight in the last quarter their never really challenged Kenilworth. Myles Crump booted 5 goals for the home side and was joined by the likes of Nicholas Chesser (four goals), Joel Whittlesea (three goals) with Isiah Place among the Kookaburras best. For the Demons, Ben McMullen booted four goals with Peter Diedrichsen, Harrison Hunter and Jayden Alderson all playing well. The victory now sees Kenilworth move into second position on the ladder with a massive game next week against the league leading Lockleys.

Colonel Light Gardens v Lockleys

The final game of the round saw the undefeated first-placed Lockleys Demons go head-to-head with second-placed Colonel Light Gardens at StreetFleet Park on Saturday afternoon. In what could be a potential Grand Final Preview, it was the Demons who improve their record to seven and zero with a hard fought 34 point victory, winning 14.11 95 to 8.13 61. Lockleys started strongly and were 24 points up at the first break, however the Lions started to win procession in the second quarter and reduced the margin to 19 points at the main break. However, normal sever returned after halftime as the Demons showed why they are the team to beat this season with a five goal to two third quarter. Demons, led by Henry Johnson (6 goals) and Dylan Howie (3 goals) had contributors all across the ground, with Tom McDonough and Alexander Stidiford the standouts. For Colonel Light Gardens, Emmett Wood, Russell Mclean and Billy 'Jean' King worked tirelessly all day. The victory sees Lockleys lock in the minor premiership and secure a first-round bye in the finals, as they are now two games and percentage clear of both CLG and Kenilworth. With the loss Colonel Light Gardens fall to third and find themselves in a battle to secure a top 3 spot with both Salisbury and Smithfield eye off the double chance.

This week in Division 5

Eastern Park v West Croydon

West Croydon head to Dwight Reserve to take on Eastern Park on Saturday afternoon. The Hawks have started to show improvement over the last couple of weeks and with a top five spot still within reach should have the motivation to get the job done. Whereas, Eastern Park will be looking to salvage something for a very disappointing season. At time they have showed what they are capable of, but have struggled to put it together for the full four quarters. West Croydon by 12 points.

Rosewater v Pooraka

Seventh placed Pooraka travel to Eric Sutton Oval to take on tenth placed Rosewater on Saturday afternoon. Only two weeks ago this game looked like a chance for Pooraka to gain some percentage and sure up a top five spot, now they will be just hoping for a victory and try to get something out of a from a very disappointing year. For Rosewater this is probably their best chance of a victory and a chance to avoid the 'Wooden Spoon'. Pooraka by 27 points.

Fitzroy v Colonel Light Gardens

Colonel Light Gardens head to Fitzroy Sports Club to face off against Fitzroy to see who will be the King of the Jungle in this battle of the Lions. Colonel Light Gardens, after losing by 34 points to ladder leaders Lockleys, will be hoping to bounce back to strengthen their chances of a top three finish. Fitzroy, on the other hand, hit their lowest point of the season last week and are coming off of a massive 144-point defeat at the hands of Salisbury. Fitzroy will be hoping to cause an upset and tarnish Colonel Light Gardens chances of securing a spot in the top three. However, expect Colonel Light Gardens to come out firing and put this game away as early as possible. Colonel Light Gardens by 45 points.

Lockleys v Kenilworth

Tipped by many at the beginning of the season to be the Grand Final preview, ladder leaders Lockleys return home to face Kenilworth on Saturday afternoon. Both sides are coming off impressive victories and are in good form. Lockleys undefeated from seven starts wrapped up the minor premiership last weekend and will be wanting to send a message to one of their main challengers. Kenilworth are coming off back-to-back victories over West Croydon and Eastern Park respectively. Whilst the Kookaburras have at times been inconstant this season, they are sitting in second and a victory would go a long way to securing a top three spot. However, let this one slip and they could find themselves in fourth spot come 5pm on Saturday. Lockleys by 7 points.

Smithfield v Salisbury

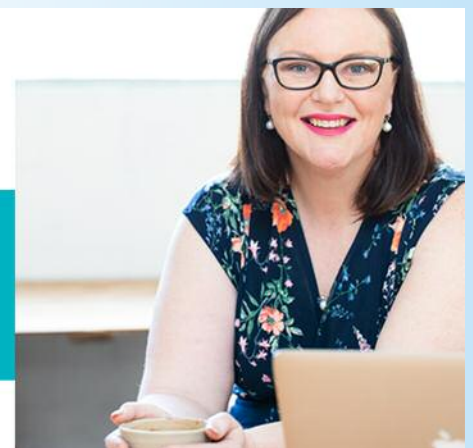

The final game of round 8 sees the fourth placed Salisbury head to Smithfield Oval to face fifth placed Smithfield on Saturday afternoon. A long with Lockleys these are the two in-form teams of the competition. So, you can expect this to be a cracking, high-scoring contest in what will be a season defining game. For the winner a place in the top three beckons, whilst for the loser a top five spot is not guaranteed. Luke Buckby has been outstanding this season for Smithfield averaging five goals a game and if he can kick a bag this week, the Panthers will go a long way to winning. Whilst Jack Howden and Sean Hee have been regularly in the Pies best and could well hold the keys to a Magpies victory. Salisbury by 4 points.

THE DIVISION 6 Match Previews

Ingle Farm 0.0 (0) def by St Pauls 18.0 (108) via FORFEIT

Ingle Farm forfeited their second consecutive game for the year, gifting St Pauls OS a massive 18-goal default win and a much-needed percentage boost amidst a tight finals tilt with four other clubs. The Bulldogs dwindle on the bottom of the ladder, while St Pauls sit third. This was because of COVID and having to quarantine for 14 days after the last forfeit the week before.

Blackfriars 21.18 (144) def Houghton 4.7 (31)

Blackfriars have kept a top two spot alive at home against a bottom-bound Houghton, extending the gap between the finals' aspirants and the losing sides. With a massive first half, Blackfriars commanded an 85-point lead by the main change, that was only extended in the second half. The 113-point victory sees Blackfriars gain a percentage boost that sees them within 2% of second placed Elizabeth. Brendan Dunn was the best on ground for the victors, while Michael Spry and Antonio Scaffidi-Muta led the charge with four goals each. Houghton sit just a percent ahead of Para Hills in seventh, with their finals chances all but gone.

Para Hills 8.5 (53) def by Elizabeth 23.20 (158)

A wayward Elizabeth got the job done on the road against a terrible Para Hills outfit on the weekend, with the 105-point win a shadow of what it could have been if the Eagles kicked straight. Nonetheless, the win sees the Eagles sit second on the ladder by percentage, with a 5-2 record after seven rounds. Benjamin Taylor kicked seven goals in the win, while Grant Wanganeen (4 goals, 5 votes) was the best afield for Elizabeth. Heath Hegarty added five goals, as the Eagles put this one to bed by half time. The Kangaroos have mightily struggled this year, and with just a couple rounds left, they have yet to put together a comprehensive performance.

Hectorville 24.11 (155) def Mawson Lakes 6.3 (39)

The Hounds continued their dominant 2020 campaign with another huge win on the weekend, disposing of a hapless Mawson Lakes team by 116 points. Jake Mazzone (8 goals) makes it 17 majors in a fortnight after 9 last week, while William Thwaites booted five and was best on ground. The Hounds have yet to be properly challenged, with no losses to their name through seven games. Mawson Lakes had just three goals to three quarter time, before a short last quarter burst saw them kick a few late goals to outscore the home side in the final term. Mawson Lakes sit second last on the ladder with just one win to their name.

Trinity 15.17 (107) def Marion 6.7 (43)

In the closest game of the round, it was still a thrashing, with the home side Trinity handing Marion their third loss of the season in an unexpected result. Marion, who took it to Hectorville last week, have fallen mightily with a 64-point loss to a fellow finals bolter. Cooper Burt kicked five for the victors, while Dylan

Winning was Trinity's best. The timing for Marion's form drop is poor, given finals around the corner and they have fallen a game behind the pack. Meanwhile, Trinity have gained the momentum boost they desired, and can take this with them heading into finals, if they make it.

This week in Division 6

Elizabeth v Hectorville

ARGANA PARK; Saturday 22 August, 2:15pm

Hectorville face arguably their biggest test yet, with a clash against second placed Elizabeth threatening to dethrone the Hounds. Undefeated so far, Hectorville travel to Elizabeth, who are in red hot form with finals close. Both sides are coming off 100 point wins last week, so this match will be telling of who is in better form. Hectorville by 22 points

Mawson Lakes v Trinity OS

MAWSON LAKES OVAL; Saturday 22 August, 2:15pm

After smashing premierships contenders Marion last week, Trinity suddenly are a chance to win it all with some new-found form that threatens to challenge the best of them. They travel to Mawson Lakes, who managed just six goals against the Hounds last week, so this match will be a test to show just how good Trinity are. If they can smash Mawson Lakes like Hectorville did, we will know for sure they are the real deal. Trinity OS by 52 points

Ingle Farm v Blackfriars OS

ROWE PARK; Saturday 22 August, 2:15pm

This match has the unknown factor. Ingle Farm, for one, may not even show up; they have forfeited the last two weeks giving their opponents percentage boosts. But if they do show up, what form will they be in? They will be well rested and potentially with some new players, so anything could happen.

If not a forfeit I am selecting Blackfriars OS by 94 points

Marion v Houghton Districts

STURT OVAL; Saturday 22 August, 2:15pm

Marion have fallen short of where they thought they would be two weeks ago, losing two on the trot and in trouble as the finals draw near. This match at home against Houghton will be a chance to recollect some form, as they face a team that has registered just one win in 2020. Marion need a win here if they are any chance of playing finals and need some results to go their way.

Marion by 45 points

St Pauls OS v Para Hills

ST PAULS COLLEGE; Saturday 22 August, 2:15pm

St Pauls have had a week off, after their opponent Ingle Farm forfeited. It could mean two things: either they come back strong after a rest, or they come back lazy after a rest. With just two regular season rounds remaining, Para Hills are yet to play good footy, but surely their time is near. With finals on the line, St Pauls cannot slip up. St Pauls OS by 100 points

THE DIVISION 7 Match Previews

Brahma Lodge 33.17-215 defeated Central United 4.3-27

When: Saturday 15th August 2:15pm

Where: Brahma Lodge Oval, Brahma Lodge

PREVIEW:

It's first placed Brahma Lodge against last placed Central United in what should be a pretty straight forward result. The ladder leaders are reeling after their undefeated started to the season was ended by a loss to second placed Adelaide Lutheran. Brahma Lodge will be out for blood looking to return to form against a side that has barely showed up to play in recent weeks such is Central United's abysmal form. They simply need to show effort in this one, that's the only way improvement is going to show if the team will's themselves to crack in and scratch and claw not simply expect improvement start. Brahma Lodge will use this game importantly to regain form by posting a big win and to regain percentage that was lost in last week's defeat. United are playing so badly at the moment that you only hope that he league leaders will have mercy on them, but Brahma Lodge will be taking no prisoners in this.

Prediction: Brahma Lodge by 89 points.

REVIEW:

Brahma Lodge have returned to form in a huge way on Saturday afternoon, absolutely dismembering a listless and languid Central United by 188 points. It was a decimation from start to finish with the home side kicking 7 goals to 1 effectively killing off the contest right there and then. It was an absolute training drill from there onwards with another 6 goals on the board for Brahma Lodge to lead by a huge 73 points at the main break. Central United were so off the mark it wasn't even funny as the league leaders powerful speedy repeatedly cut through them and served their forwards ball on a silver platter. That was only amplified in the third quarter when Brahma booted a whopping 14 goals to 2 to take a 149-point lead into the final term. A 149-point lead with another whole quarter to play, that's something that just hasn't been seen in some time. To say the United fans were embarrassed would be a massive understatement as they were left speechless upon witnessing their team get torn to shreds at every turn. The visitors were kept completely scoreless in the last term as Brahma put the icing on the cake with another 6 goals to increase their percentage and maintain outright top spot. Central United went below rock bottom in this one, one of the worst performances in football history. Eric Hem-Mendes led the goalkicking with 5 majors, Arnold Tripp, Veasna Leak, Jack Cook and Karim Hrynkiw each had 4 goals. Jack Scott and Dylan Middleton supported well with 3 goals apiece such was spread of goal scorers. Both teams play next Saturday afternoon with Brahma Lodge taking on Mitchell Park while Central United take on O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale.

O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale 15.6-96 defeated by Adelaide Lutheran 18.16-124

Where: Lonsdale Oval, Morphett Vale

When: Saturday 15th August 2:15pm

PREVIEW:

This is a big game for a few reasons. Adelaide Lutheran last week had their best win of the season so far upsetting the then undefeated ladder leaders in Brahma Lodge while O'Sullivan Beach were largely unconvincing in their 1-point win over Flinders University last week. Adelaide go into this match as the hot favourite but shouldn't get ahead of themselves like teams have in the past where they go into a game against lowly opposition after a big win the week before against a top team, they're expected to continue their winning ways and just breeze through. So often that hasn't been the case, but Adelaide Lutheran are a battle-hardened and experienced side that have been down this road before so expect them to be prepared for anything coming their way. O'Sullivan Beach's inconsistency has been a big plight on them so far this season and they have to keep addressing if they're any chance of taking it up the second placed team. Adelaide should get the done here but expect O'Sullivan Beach to take it right up to them hopefully for more than a quarter.

Prediction: Adelaide Lutheran by 29 points.

REVIEW:

Adelaide Lutheran have triumphed over O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale by 28 points in an exhilarating affair on Saturday afternoon. Trevor Rigney was the clear standout for O'Sullivan Beach with a huge 7 goal performance but proved not enough in the end as Adelaide's experience and speedy midfield got the job done providing their forwards with brilliant service with forward Jason Dikkenberg taking advantage with 5 goals. A 9 goal first quarter between the two sides set up the tight contest with Adelaide just having that extra gear and keeping composed when kicking for goal despite missing a couple of easy ones they were in control from the opening. O'Sullivan Beach were taking it up to them though staying in the contest trailing by just 9 points going into the main break. It was largely an attacking game with Adelaide kicking away in the third scoring 7.7 to O'Sullivan Beach's 5.1. In the last term, Adelaide's composure and smooth skill allowed them to comfortably cruise to a win but if not for some errant goalkicking by the home side in the second quarter the result could have been different. O'Sullivan Beach will take positives from that loss into next Saturday's game against the last placed Central United. Also, on Saturday Adelaide Lutheran play Flinders University.

Mitchell Park 19.14-128 defeated Flinders University 9.7-61

When: Saturday 15th August 2:15pm

Where: Mitchell Park Oval, Mitchell Park

PREVIEW:

This match doesn't look to even anymore. Mitchell Park's stunning rise up the ladder has been a spectacle to watch while Flinders University's impressive start to the season looks like ancient history as they have struggled for form since. Mitchell Park look the goods here and are running over teams like never before and they'll be expected to do the exact same in this one. Last year these were the two bottom teams although Mitchell Park found some form late in the season and have steadily improved on that ever since. Now they have arrived they look like a contender such is the quickness of a turnaround in form and fortune. Flinders must start well if there any chance of staying in this one, if they do then they could be a slight chance, but Mitchell Park are in some kind of form lately and look too good here, expect a good win here.

Prediction: Mitchell Park by 39 points.

REVIEW:

A huge 5 goal performance by Jake Spencely has inspired Mitchell Park to another impressive win, comfortably accounting for Flinders University by 67 points on Saturday afternoon. A 4 goal to 1 first term set up the win as Mitchell Park jumped the visitors scoring early and gaining a tight grip on the contest early. The momentum continued with their home fans behind them as they scored another 5 goals in the second term to take a handy 33-point lead into the main break. Flinders had barely any answers scoring their goals largely from Mitchell Park mistakes rather than winning the ball properly. Mitchell Park held firm from there and not getting too carried away with ball in hand as the midfield set up their forwards with good ball. Flinders improved a little in the second half with a sort of impressive third term but were scoreless in the last as they struggled to find any momentum going forward. Mitchell Park will be quickly looking to next huge clash with the top of the table Brahma Lodge next Saturday afternoon while Flinders University come up against Adelaide Lutheran also next Saturday afternoon.
