Home finals are advantageous, but they are not deal-breakers!

This is the season like no other. In July, given the current global pandemic and increasing COVID-19 cases in Victoria, the decision was made that all Victorian AFL teams were to relocate to various States across the country and hub there for the remainder of the 2020 season. While this allowed the season to continue, the only downfall was that these teams then had to play their “home” games at grounds in which they rarely played at. Those teams who have been able to play at home have a big edge on the rest of the competition, but could it decide who wins the flag?

by
Madison Mifsud-Ure

The end of the season is nearing, and the top eight teams have been decided. The current coronavirus control measures in place has meant that there are only four grounds where matches will be played for the finals – Adelaide Oval, the Gabba, Metricon Stadium and Optus Stadium (where only one elimination final will take place). While six teams have won the right to play a home final only three teams will actually play at their home ground, and coincidentally the three teams are the only non-Victorian teams in the eight: Port Adelaide, Brisbane Lions and West Coast Eagles. This will be the first time in the history of the AFL where there will be no finals played in Melbourne, but with five Victorian sides left in the competition, how much impact will this have on their push for the premiership?

There’s a reason they call it a home-ground advantage and why teams and fans alike want to finish as close to the top of the ladder as possible, so they can guarantee themselves a home final and give themselves the best possible chance of winning finals and then holding up that elusive premiership cup. Not having to travel, ground familiarity and supporters are three of the main factors that give you an advantage when playing at home. This season Brisbane are undefeated at the Gabba, West Coast are undefeated at Optus Stadium while Port Adelaide have won seven matches and only lost one at the Adelaide Oval.

Sitting at first and second on the ladder respectively, Port Adelaide guaranteed themselves two home finals at the Adelaide Oval, likewise Brisbane guaranteed themselves two home finals at the Gabba. The Grand Final is being played at the Gabba this year, so despite possibly being the “away” team, Brisbane could end up playing all of their matches at their home fortress and given their current form this would make them premiership favourites. Due to the current COVID-19 restrictions in Western Australia, West Coast will only play one home final at Optus Stadium. That’s at least five of nine matches which will definitely be played at these teams’ home ground (COVID-19 dependent). Therefore, do the three non-Victorian teams in the eight have more of an advantage? It’s more than likely that those teams playing at their home ground for finals will have some advantage over their opponents, but five top eight teams have played very few games at their home ground and yet have managed to finish in the top eight. To reward the teams finishing higher on the ladder and mitigating any advantage to away sides playing at “home”, the likes of Geelong, Richmond and Saint Kilda will get the opportunity to decide where they want their “home” final to be held between the three grounds – Adelaide Oval, the Gabba and Metricon Stadium. Having earned that right to nominate a preferred ground to play their home finals at, if they are scheduled to compete against either Port or Brisbane you would expect them to select a different ground to the normal home ground that their opponents usually play at.

by
Madison Mifsud-Ure

Home finals do not always result in victory. Putting it into perspective, last year Brisbane had two home finals at the Gabba but lost both of them, while retrospectively in 2018 when West Coast won the premiership, they played both the semi-final and preliminary final at home. Then way back in 2016, the Western Bulldogs played and won four away finals matches and went on to win the premiership that year. The saying goes, to be the best you have to beat the best and win anywhere and beating the best at their home ground is about as big as it gets. Those teams that can beat their opponents at their opponent’s home ground or at a ground less familiar to them, will be more than just premiership pretenders and seen as true premiership contenders.

The finals watch

The home stretch for the premiership decider is just around the corner as eight teams prepare to battle it out for a spot. The last few spots to play in finals were uncertain going into the final round, but now the spots are finalised and the stage is set. The Western Bulldogs and the Saints have snuck into the final eight leaving Melbourne and GWS out in the cold. While Brisbane and Port Adelaide have claimed the top two spots after a dominant season. The minor premiership will be decided tonight as Port Adelaide look to defeat Collingwood.

by
Kayla Voss

Brisbane and Port Adelaide will both earn themselves a place in AFL history if they take out the McClelland Trophy. Brisbane, despite their four year Grand Final run in the early 2000s, have not won the minor premiership. While Port Adelaide will be named as the seventh team to hold top spot for the home-and-away season if they defeat Collingwood. However, Chris Fagan and Ken Hinkley have both stated that while the recognition would be nice, it means nothing in finals.

Ladder positions in the home-and-away season mean nothing in finals if you are not up for the task. Anything can happen. Teams must play their best footy or risk an early finals departure. So, their players need to be up to the challenge. Finals footy is exactly the time when big players have to stand up and lead the charge. Every team in the finals race have players who can change the game by playing their best footy.

Lachie Neale is the obvious choice for Brisbane. He attacks the football hard and plays with incredible power, but he also has some young talent around him. Injecting youth into the side has been a part of many team's plans this season as it inspires experienced players to play with freedom. Travis Boak is certainly one of those players who has the support of young talent around him. Without question Boak is having his greatest season yet, and him playing well in the finals will be crucial for Port Adelaide's game.

West Coast and Geelong's respective gun midfielders Tim Kelly and Patrick Dangerfield are huge influencers on their team's ball movement. Both teams have an incredible midfield, but those two player's lead the charge when they play their best football. Dustin Martin and Jack Riewoldt are unsurprisingly players who can turn any game on its head, but Shai Bolton has proved himself to be an important part of Richmond's game plan.

Collingwood's mix of experience in Scott Pendelbury and youth in Jordan De Goey let it speak for itself against the Suns in round 17. While there is debate on whether De Goey should even be playing, his football is the one thing you cannot argue with when he plays his best. The Western Bulldogs have a similar situation as Bailey Smith continues to impress fans, while Bontempelli and Wallace show off their experience. Finally, the Saints have challenged every odd this season, but they have done it in style. Their exciting brand of football is led by Jack Steele and Dan Butler. The top eight teams are armed with many more incredible players at their disposal, but you cannot argue the influence the above players have on their teams.

by
Kayla Voss

The 2020 finals campaign should be an amazing spectacle as eight teams battle to prove their worth. Each team has something different to bring to the finals. Brisbane are desperate to improve upon last year's finals record, while Port Adelaide are still facing critics due to their history of inconsistency. Richmond's finals experience is uncontested which I have no doubt will show through their performances, whereas the Eagles are determined to feel premiership victory again. Geelong certainly have talented players at their disposal, but after their six-point win over Sydney, their premiership contention has been questioned. Collingwood will be hoping to have another crack at a premiership this year after it escaped them in 2018, despite a fairly disappointing season. Finally, the Saints and the Bulldogs are against the odds, but no team is to be underestimated in finals.

Finals week

Port Adelaide vs Geelong Cats

Although Port's record against the Cats at Adelaide oval is unfavorable, the Power's home advantage should still give them enough to compete with Geelong. Both teams, in recent years, have not had the type of finals run that either club would have hoped for. This year, however, is the best time for either team to make it to the grand final. With both squads relatively healthy, this game will pan out to be the most exciting match in the finals. As for who I think will win, it's a close call. But, with Gary Ablett, Joel Selwood and Zach Tuohy back in the squad, I think the talent and experience of Geelong will give them an edge over the minor premiers.

by
Foti Mantis

Brisbane Lions vs Richmond

The Brisbane Lions are a young and energetic team that have shown great poise and consistency throughout the entire season, finishing just below the Power on percentage. Everything they have achieved has been through grit, determination and hunger. Richmond, on the other hand, have been in this type of position before. Where the Lions will feel the pressure of the finals, the Tigers will showcase their experience and composure in situations like this and run over Brisbane. Since the return of their injured stars, Richmond have hit the type of form they would have wanted heading into the finals. And, although Dustin Martin's form hasn't been great, we all know finals Dusty is a different being. My prediction is that Richmond will run over Brisbane in the last quarter of the game, winning by a margin of 20+ points.

West Coast Eagles vs Collingwood

Yet again, the two foes who fought it out in the grand final two years ago face each other in an elimination final. Regardless of injuries, both the Eagles and the Magpies will be fighting it out to try and knock each other off in the first round, more out of pride than to advance in the finals. With Collingwood just edging into a top 8 position, and the questionable form they have shown throughout the season, the West Coast eagles should have enough to eliminate the Magpies. And, despite West Coast falling off in the last few games of the season, a win over Collingwood should give them enough momentum to challenge any other team in the finals.

Finals week

West Coast Eagles vs Collingwood

We've all seen how much damage the Western Bulldogs can cause in the finals, upsetting the Sydney Swans back in 2016. Footy bandits around Australia understand that a game against the Bulldogs can fall either way, even if the odds are against them 10/1. They've solidified themselves as a team that can play under pressure, and arguably, play better as the underdogs. St Kilda don't have much finals experience, and their form from the middle of the season, which saw them in the top 4 for a couple of rounds, has dropped significantly in recent games. However, there's no arguing the talent that St Kilda possess, with the likes of Dan Butler, Max King, Dougal Howard, Jack Steele and Paddy Ryder. Both teams have elite ball-users and scorers in their attack, but only one has a player like Marcus Bontempelli. And, because of that, I think the Bulldogs will have that extra leg over the Saints, winning in a tight match by a margin of one goal.

Is a Tiger dynasty about to happen?

Premierships are rare, every team wants to win one, trains an entire preseason and plays an entire season in search of one... but only one team achieves it every year. This begs the question, what exactly is a dynasty? The word gets thrown around a fair bit, but what really makes one? Looking back at some of the past few premierships.

by
Daniel Emilio Amato

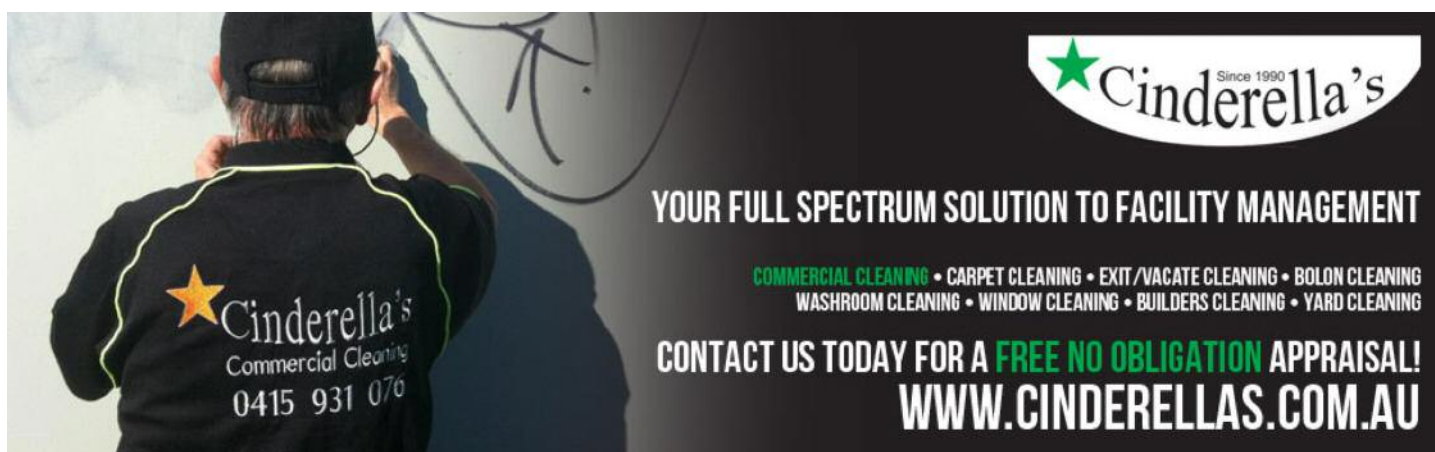

The Western Bulldogs of 2016 won a premiership from 7th position to claim the holy grail, but it was just that... a premiership. In 2015, they enjoyed a solid season and made a finals appearance, but were bundled out in the first week by Adelaide, and subsequently missed the eight in 2017 and 2018. So no, that is not a dynasty because it is just one single flag.

Looking back to the late nineties when North Melbourne and Adelaide won four premierships together (North in 1996 and 1999, Adelaide in 1997 and 1998). Particularly with the Kangaroos, they went through a sustained period of on-field dominance, playing in seven consecutive Preliminary Finals from 1994-2000, including two Grand Finals for three premierships.

However, due to the fact they only won two of possible three Grand Finals, it cannot be called a dynasty. A fantastic period yes, but a dynasty? No. Adelaide are even less an example, because although they won two remarkable premierships in a row despite being underdogs on both accounts, they finished 12th and 13th on either side of the flags (1996 and 1999). So while the back-to-back titles against unbackable odds was an incredible achievement, it is still not a dynasty.

Now, what can be considered a dynasty? For one, the Brisbane Lions of 2001-2004. Particularly for a non-Victorian team, to qualify in four consecutive Grand Finals, having to travel interstate every second week and still win three premierships in a row is the stuff of legends, and is still certainly the greatest three-peat of all time. Despite the fact they couldn't quite complete the four-peat in 2004, this is absolutely considered a dynasty. Not only did the Lions qualify for finals and Grand Finals, they actually won them and took their opportunities more often than not.

Geelong of 2007-2011 is another one, in five years they finished a home and away season either first or second, made the preliminary final on every occasion, making four Grand Finals and winning three. Despite not winning any of them consecutively, this is still a dynasty because they won three within a small timeframe. Hawthorn of 2011-2016 is the last of the recent dynasties. A heartbreaking three point loss in the Preliminary Final against Collingwood, backed up by four Grand Finals in a row for three flags in 2013-2015. This is the last true dynasty we have seen... until possibly now.

The advertisement features a black and white photograph of a person from behind, wearing a dark jacket with a yellow star logo and the text 'Cinderella's Commercial Cleaning 0415 931 076'. To the right, the Cinderella's logo is displayed with a green star and the text 'Cinderella's Since 1990'. Below the logo, the text reads 'YOUR FULL SPECTRUM SOLUTION TO FACILITY MANAGEMENT'. At the bottom, it says 'CONTACT US TODAY FOR A FREE NO OBLIGATION APPRAISAL!' and 'WWW.CINDERELLAS.COM.AU'.

Amato's 5th Quarter

Is a Tiger dynasty about to happen?

The Richmond Football Club, after finishing 13th in 2016, have come from seemingly nowhere to win two premierships since and if they are successful in this year's crazy season... will officially create their own dynasty. The flags coming in 2017 and 2019, they need just one more to claim it. A dynasty is lucky number three, if a club wins three premierships within a 4-7 year bracket, it is a dynasty. One or two is great, no doubt... but it is not a truly sustained period of success. In reality, Richmond could have and should, be going for their fourth premiership in a row. They were the surprise packet in 2017 and 2019 they were continuing on... but 2018 they were truly the best team in the competition and the Preliminary Final loss to Collingwood was an absolute choke of the highest quality. But if they win their third flag in four years, it will officially enter the rare mould.

With a Qualifying Final battle against Brisbane, whom they boast a great record over, could be the first step in achieving that rare feat. Time will tell.

DIVISION C1

Adelaide University have gone through to the Grand Final after beating Prince Alfred OC by 66-points after, a close first half where Adelaide University lead by eight-points (PAOC: 1.5-11 to Uni: 11.11-77). Goodwood Saints will play Prince Alfred in the Preliminary Final after a tense eight-point win over St Peter's OC, who managed to keep Goodwood to just 1.2 in the last quarter (SPOC: 8.3-51 to Saints: 9.5-59).

DIVISION C2

Henley have made it through to the Grand Final after beating Tea Tree Gully by 10-points, this was Tea Tree Gully's first loss for the season after finishing the home and away season undefeated (TTG: 6.5-41 to Hen: 6.15-51). Sacred Heart OC will meet Tea Tree Gully in the Preliminary Final after beating Broadview in a four-point nail biter where, the lead never extended past 10-points for the game (Broad: 6.11-47 to SHOC: 7.9-51)

Preliminary Final: TTG vs SHOC

DIVISION C3

Plympton will meet Flinders Park in the Grand Final after they beat Modbury by 19-points in the Preliminary Final (Plym: 12.12-84 to Mod: 10.5-65). It'll be a first versus second showdown in the Grand Final at Norwood Oval this weekend after Flinders Park ended the season in top spot and Plympton in second. The game looks to be a close one after their Qualifying Final saw Flinders Park get up by four-points, this one could go either way.

Grand Final: Flinders Park vs Plympton

DIVISION C4

SMOSH West Lakes went down in another four-point nail biter losing to Pembroke OS, in a game where the lead never exceeded seven-points at the major breaks (SMOSH: 8.4-52 to PemOS: 8.8-56). Pembroke OS will meet Adelaide University in the Grand Final, Adelaide University have gone through both the home and away season and final series undefeated and will be going in as favourites. Pembroke OS do have a good chance of causing an upset if they can play like they did in their final against SMOSH.

Going on this form it is hard to go past Adelaide University as favourites for this encounter. Grand Final: Uni vs Marion

DIVISION C7

Golden Grove will be looking to get redemption against St Peter's OC in the Grand Final after losing to them in the semi-final. Golden Grove recorded a 43-point win over Prince Alfred OC in the Preliminary Final, ending Prince Alfred OC's season (Grove: 13.12-90 to PAOC: 6.11-47). This Grand Final looks to be a close one with a one versus two showdown with Golden Grove spurred on by their 21-point semi-final loss to St Peter's OC and make it a tight game.

Prince Alfred OC v Goodwood Saints

Luke Hosie gives his match reviews from last week and previews this week

THE DIVISION 1 Match Previews

Second Semi-Final

Goodwood Saints 9.18 (72) def St Peter's Old Collegians 9.11 (65)

Born, dying, paying tax and Goodwood Saints playing in a division one grand final are the only certainties in life. And again this new group of Saints players and their coach Luke Donaldson, have put the famous club back into the "big dance" after a few years of not being there on the big day. St Peter's Old Collegians started favourites, after an outstanding year. They had the week off last week in readiness for the big clash, but fell short. Goodwood got out of the blocks quicker than their collegiate opponent and led by 12-points at quarter time. However it was the second quarter, where the Saints probably won the game. Goodwood kicked three goals to one, and led at half-time by 25-points in a low scoring match. This ultimately was the difference. The maestro coach Geoff Riddle, made some positional changes at the long break, and St Peter's come out firing in the third quarter. St Peter's Old Collegians kicked 6 goals to Goodwood's 2 goals, to draw within 1-point at three quarter time. Most people at the ground, thought that the momentum that the Saints had gathered during that third quarter, would be enough to win. But the momentum swung back in favour of the Saints in that final term. The Saints peppered the goals but only kicked 1.7 to St Peter's OC 1.1. The poor goal kicking from the Saints could well have been their undoing, but they eventually run out 7 point winners. Evergreen Nick Burgess, was superb for the Saints. Others to play well, were Oliver Johnson, Angus Clarke, Jack Carter, Scott Blesing and Mason Ellis. Burgess and Angus Clarke were the only multiple goal kickers with 2 each. For St Peter's OC it was James Hargreaves who was best and he was ably supported by big man Matthew Claughton, Toby Schulz, Hamish Allan and James Duncan. The two big book ends in James and Jock McLeay gave a real focal point for St Peter's to score with 3 goals each.

First Semi-Final

Rostrevor OC 9.15 (69) def Prince Alfred OC 7.5 (47)

Prince Alfred OC and Rostrevor OC did battle at University Oval, with the Reds going in as favourites. However, they were never really in the hunt as Rostrevor led from start to finish. Never at any point during the day did Princes threaten to win. It was a fairly meek ending for the Reds who appeared grand final bound only a few weeks ago.

Rostrevor opened the game best, leading by 16-points at quarter time and should have been further in front, if not for inaccurate kicking. The second quarter however, was when Rostrevor iced the game, as they led by a game high 29-points at the long break. One sensed the game was well and truly over at this point. The Reds made a spirited comeback during the third quarter but still trailed by 18-points at three quarter time. The last quarter was largely one way traffic as Rostrevor peppered the goals kicking 3.5 to 3.1. Whilst it's easy to look at the scoreboard and see a 22-point victory to Rostrevor, that did not tell the true tale of the game. Rostrevor having 24 scoring shots to the Reds 12 scoring shots best displays the superiority that Rostrevor had over their collegiate rivals. Dylan Reinbrecht, Paul Fantasia, Craig Holm, Kieran Holland and Lukey Manuel were best for Rostrevor. Manuel and Fantasia were their only multiple goal kickers with two each. For the Reds, it was tougher to pick better players. Tom Brinsley was superb all day, while Jack Stephens, Tom Humphries and Adam Perryman were good. Tom Bartlett kicked 3 goals and Tom Humphries kicked 2 as the only multiple goal scorers for the Reds.

Preliminary Final

St Peter's Old Collegians v Rostrevor Old Collegians
Thebarton Oval at 2.15pm

Who gets a crack at Goodwood Saints next week? Will it be St Peter's Old Collegians who took all before them during the minor round or will it be Rostrevor Old Collegians who have been outstanding over the last month? Both sides have quality all over the field. Both sides have outstanding midfields, while St Peter's OC have the advantage in the ruck. There will be a number of "tagging" roles assigned to dominant midfielders, with Jesse O'Brien sure to have someone with him all day long. St Peter's do appear to have better avenues to goal. The big boys in Jock and James McLeay and Luke Mitchell, offer some big marking targets up forward for Saints. The Rostrevor defence is not overly tall either. But with cooler and damp conditions predicted on the weekend, that could well help the ROC's defenders. Rostrevor have been good at manufacturing goals and forwards during the year to get their goals. We're sure that Rostrevor will have some surprises with the make up of their forward half on Saturday. For me, St Peter's seem to have too many options all over the park. Whether going forward they seem to have more goal scoring power. Their defence appears to have more flexibility to cover problems and different scenarios that Rostrevor will ask of them. This should be a cracking game of football, with the winner not known until deep into the final quarter. For me its St Peter's Old Collegians by 13 points

THE DIVISION 2 Match Previews

First Semi-Final

Henley 14.10-94 defeated Old Ignatians 7.9-51 by 43 points at Henley Memorial Oval

Henley overcame an in-form Old Ignatians side to run away 43-point victors and book themselves a preliminary final date with Sacred Heart OC. Following a disappointing one-point loss to Sacred Heart OC in last round's qualifying final, Henley were desperate to make amends and keep their season alive. Henley set the tone right from the first bounce and were able to build a 13-point lead by the end of the first quarter. The second quarter saw more of the same, as Old Ignatians struggled to contain a free-flowing Henley outfit with the Sharks kicking home six goals for the quarter to run away to a 43-point half-time lead. Old Ignatians showed more fight in an entertaining second-half but Henley were able to match them and maintain their composure to stave off any chance of a legitimate comeback. James Lean starred for Henley with a crucial four-goal performance while Liam Martin played arguably his best game of the season in a dominant display. Jackson Smith, Harris Jessen and Dylan Simpson also hit the scoreboard for Henley with two goals apiece. For Old Ignatians, Austin Horner showed promise up forward with two goals while Lawrence Comazzetto was the best on a difficult day for the club. Henley now progress to face off against Sacred Heart OC in what should prove to be an enthralling contest to decide who plays Tea Tree Gully in the Division 2 grand final.

Second Semi-Final

Tea Tree Gully 17.15-117 defeated Sacred Heart OC 11.9-75 by 42 points at Pertaringa Oval

Tea Tree Gully have booked themselves a grand final spot with an impressive 42-point victory over Sacred Heart OC. It was expected to be a tight contest as two in-form teams faced off to vie for a week off and a chance at the all-important Division 2 flag, however, Tea Tree Gully had other ideas. Tea Tree Gully put together one of the most impressive quarters seen in Division 2 this year to run out to a 52-point lead at quarter-time while keeping Sacred Heart OC goalless. Sacred Heart OC showed more fight in the second term to boot home four goals but the game was already largely over with the large deficit proving too much to overcome. Tea Tree Gully went into the half-time break with a 56-point lead and there was no looking back from there despite getting outscored by Sacred Heart OC in the second half. Ryan Spittle was all class with an all-important four-goal haul and Blake Penney was awarded best-on-ground honours in a terrific effort for Tea Tree Gully. Patrick McCarthy and Cameron Rankin kicked three-goals apiece for Sacred Heart OC who will need more efforts like that next week as they seek to make amends in their preliminary final clash against Henley.

This week in Division 2

Preliminary Final Preview

September 26, Saturday, 2:15PM

Sacred Heart OC vs Henley at Sacred Heart Middle School

Sacred Heart OC had been in remarkable form up until their defeat at the hands of Tea Tree Gully last week. Their performance at Tea Tree Gully will raise questions over their ability to beat the competition's heavyweights when it matters most, but if their regular season form is anything to go by, those doubts should be laid to rest. Henley will be desperate to make amends and defeat Sacred Heart OC following their one-point defeat in their qualifying final clash. Inaccurate kicking cost them dearly on that day and undoubtedly proved a deciding factor. However, with this clash set to take place on Sacred Heart's home deck, it will make for an even tougher task. At their peak, Henley have what it takes to defeat Sacred Heart OC but home-ground advantage and an expectation that they will bounce back from last week's defeat gives Sacred Heart OC the edge in this one.

THE DIVISION 3 Match Previews

North Haven 10.13 def by Flinders Park 18.13

Flinders Park have completed the biggest bounce back from a poor start to the season in a long time, making their way from 0-3 all the way to the big dance. The Reds travelled to windy North Haven and took care of business in a dominant performance, running out eight goal victors. Tom Lipson made his comeback and kicked three goals but it was not enough for the home side to get the win as the damage was primarily done in the third term. North Haven came into half time in front by one straight kick, but the tide turned very quickly at the start of the second half. Flinders Park went on a season defining run, kicking nine third quarter goals to North Havens one, giving the Magpies next to no chance of winning the game. The final score did not do the overall performance of North Haven justice but you won't win a lot of games letting the opposition outscore you by eight goals in a single quarter, wind or no wind. Daniel Blythe was excellent for the reds, kicking four majors while Comma and Jackson McCann kicked three each. Schwarz produced a best on ground effort and kicked a goal in the process. North Haven have had a fantastic year and would be disappointed to go out losing two games in a row, but there's no doubt that they will roll into 2021 brimming with confidence. They were the only team to knock off Golden Grove in the home and away season and played a lot of tough, gritty football on their way to second spot on the table.

A disappointing day for the maggies but they will bounce back. For the reds, they have earnt their chance to play for the ultimate prize. They travel to Norwood this week to face the all-conquering Golden Grove with a premiership on the line.

the A grade at Norwood oval. You couldn't pick two teams that had greater contrasting seasons. Golden Grove have done it in a canter all year long, losing only one game on their road to the grand final. From minute one they looked the goods and have proven this week in week out, taking care of business in their first final against North haven the other week. Flinders Park, on the other hand, have had to fight tooth and nail to get to the big dance. They started out the year looking average at best and their season looked to be gone at 0-3. Since then, they haven't looked back and have beaten all challengers on their path to the grand final. They have won three games in the finals with an average winning margin of 79 points, an intimidating record. One team it may not intimidate, though, is Golden Grove. They stack up well across the park and have shown that they have a number of gears that they can go to when required, but they will need them all to run out victors in this one. Trenorden has been a factor up forward for the reds since the middle of the year and his ability to either take the mark or win the contest up forward has proven a valuable commodity. For Golden Grove, they have goals from midfield week in week out which will be key for them this week. Flinders park have a plethora of players who enjoy running and creating from defence so the ownness will be on them to stay accountable. It will no doubt be one of the games of the year. It's almost impossible to tip against the top side and it's almost impossible to tip against a side that has won eight in a row. I can't tip a draw, but it would be ridiculous to think this will be anything other than a close game. Flinders Park have had three tough finals fixtures in a row where as Grove will be coming into this one fresh and ready to go. I think Golden Grove take home the flag this year in what has been one of the most exciting divisions in all of amateur footy. Golden Grove by 15.

Preliminary Final Review Pembroke Old Scholars v Walkerville

Walkerville have consolidated a spot in the 2020 Grand Final, after they defeated minor premiers Pembroke OS by 27-points in the preliminary final on Saturday. After going through the home-and-away season undefeated, the Kings lost consecutive finals to end their impressive season on a disappointing note. Similar to their round four meeting, there was little separating the teams at quarter time, with the Kings leading by just one-point. In the second term neither team was able to grab full ascendancy, with the Cats holding a three-point lead at half-time. When play resumed in the second half, the Cats displayed their trademark attacking game-style, with six goals in the third quarter seeing them lead by 19-points at the final break. Despite the best efforts of the determined Kings, the Cats finished off the game strongly, to give themselves the opportunity to claim the flag. Sean Kuerschner was proactive for the Cats, with five goals and a hand in many others, while Benjamin Walter was hard to contain with three majors. King's Alex Forster kicked a bag of six for the second consecutive week, while Jack Green snagged two. The outstanding performance of Kuerschner was well accompanied by great games from Brady Zwar and Tim Woolford, with the Cats having a number of notable contributors throughout the game. For the Kings Charles Canny set, a high standard of effort for his teammates to reach, while Oliver Harms was industrious. Coming from the elimination final the Cats will be hoping for a fairy-tale finish this weekend, while the Kings will hit pre-season determined to take the next step in the 2021 season.

season is set to be a thriller, with both teams having several goal scoring options and star players. After having the week off the Demons will feel refreshed and be determined to have a positive start to the game. The Cats will be confident they can get the result, after defeating the Demons by 29-points in round five, with Demons star forward Matthew Min being held to just two-majors. The attacking-play of these teams will be entertaining for the crowd, with Cats livewire Benjamin Walter and Demons marking giant Jayke Hellamanns set to provide many highlights throughout the game. During the season both teams have struggled with inconsistent form, however this final series has revealed their best form and creates an intriguing match-up which is set to be high-scoring. The synergy of the Cats looks destined to trouble the Demons, with their second half against the Kings proving that when in-form they can play a brand of footy which will test any side. If Min can get plenty of supply the Demons may challenge the Cats, but the cohesive play of the Cats is expected to be to great for the Demons to match.

Preliminary Final Kenilworth v Colonel Light Gardens

Kenilworth welcomed Colonel Light Gardens to Simonds Park on Saturday afternoon for the Preliminary Final. With the winner getting an opportunity to play Lockleys in next weekend's Grand Final at Richmond Oval. In their previous two meetings Kenilworth has had the wood over CLG, including the Qualifying Final two weeks ago when Kenilworth came away with a 44 point victory. After a slow, sluggish start to the game the home side started to get going and by quarter time had kicked four goals to one to take an 18-point lead into the first break. The second quarter was a dour affair with neither side able to get any really momentum. It took until the 10 minute mark for the Kookaburras to kick the first goal of the quarter and whilst the Lions had slowed down the run of Kenilworth. The Kookaburras still managed to control possession. This prevented CLG to create any real scoring opportunities as the Lions went goalless for the quarter and by halftime Kenilworth had extended their lead out to 33 points. CLG season was slipping away and they would need a big third quarter if they were to give themselves any chance. However, the Kookaburras had other ideas as Kenilworth continued to pepper the goals. Had it not been for their accuracy the three-quarter time margin of 39 points would have been far greater as Kenilworth managed only three goals from eleven scoring shots leaving the door slightly ajar for the Lions. The final quarter played out much the like the third with Kenilworth with a five goal to three quarter. To secure a 14.21 105 to 7.7 49 victory. In the end the 56 point margin could had been far greater as the Kookaburras finished with 35 scoring shots to 14 and never allowed the Lions to get into the game. Trent Grosser and Myles Crump combined for 6 goals for the Kookaburras, whilst Jordan Wilson-King (1 goal) was outstanding, who along with the always influential Nicholas Chesser combined to set up the victory. Emmett Wood (4 goals) was the main standout for the Lions in the defeat. James Conlon and Josh Dawkins playing his first game for the season both battled hard. For Colonel Light Gardens it's a disappointing finish to the season, but there has been plenty to like from the Lions and expect them to be around the mark again in 2021. For Kenilworth they now turn their focus to Lockleys and next week's Grand Final.

Grand Final Lockleys v Kenilworth

In what has been entertaining but unusual 2020 season, we find ourselves on the eve of the SAAFL Division 5 Grand Final. Whilst the season that has only lasted 13 weeks, the Grand Final sees for the third time in only five weeks Lockleys taking on Kenilworth. The two teams have clearly been the in-form teams of the competition and it is sure to be a high quality contest. The Demons are entering the game as favorites having dominated the competition and, in the process winning 9 of their 10 games this season. Their only loss coming against their Grand Final opponents back in round 8 when Kenilworth got home by five points. After securing the minor premiership and winning the second semi-final Lockleys will be well rested and will be playing only their second game in four weeks. This should see them coming into the game with a clean bill of health and ensure they having fresh legs which could become important late in the game, especially on what is likely to be a heavy ground.

After a slow start to the season the last 6-7 weeks has seen Kenilworth play some of their best football for the year including a massive 56-point victory over Colonel Light Gardens in the Preliminary Final. The Kookaburras were forced to take the long road to the decider and will be playing in their 13th consecutive game in this condensed season. What effect will this have, does this allow them to maintain the momentum or could they be starting to run low on energy? In the second semi-final Lockleys got on top after half time, was this due to the advantage of the weeks rest?

Lockleys have been a high scoring team this season, especially in the first half of the season as they managed over 140 points in each of the first five rounds. This has been possible by their capacity to have multiple options to goals with Henry Johnson, Matthew McDonough and Dylan Howie all averaging over three goals a game. The Demon's haven't just relied on their goalkickers with players like Simon Ascoli, Alexander Stidiford and Hayden Matinello regularly in their best. Whilst the ability of guys like Liam Narcys and Zain King play their role week in week out is vital for any team to have success.

For Kenilworth the improvement and consistency as the season has progressed of Samuel Scott, Lachlan Richter and Myles Crump has taken some of the pressure off Nicholas Chesser who is having an amazing season. For the Kookaburras to win they will need more out the likes of Trent Grosser and Isaiah Place and will be hoping Luke Wilson can hit the scoreboard. The weather is likely to play a factor in the game, so don't expect a high scoring affair. Kenilworth come into this game as the underdogs but will be confident in the knowledge they have beaten Lockleys already this season and took the fight right up to the Demons in the second semi-final before fading late in the game. They will be hoping for a fast start to put some pressure on and doubts in the minds of the Demons. Kenilworth will know and the Lockleys players will know, that the Demons have many "Demons" in finals. The Kookaburra players will be wanting to put Lockleys and their coach Steven Zweck under pressure from the start, with their poor finals record. The Demons might just falter. However, Lockleys have been the team to beat all season and look to have all the momentum needed to become 2020 South Australian Amateurs Football League Division 5 Premiers. Lockleys by 27 points

PRELIMINARY FINAL

St Pauls 5.17 (47) def Blackfriars Old Scholars 4.15 (39)

In one of the most inaccurate displays in front of goal all year, St Pauls advanced to the 2020 division 6 grand final to play Hectorville next week after narrowly escaping with an eight-point win. With high tides blowing gales all game, it made kicking difficult for both sides, as evident with the score-line. 32 combined behinds set the tone for the matchup, with just nine goals kicked between them. Matthew Rivett, from the losing Blackfriars, was the only player who could manage multiple goals, kicking two in the loss. Riley Hendriks was the best player afield for St Pauls, who trailed at half time by ten points before holding Blackfriars goal-less in the second half en route to the grand final clinching victory. Blackfriars will be left to wonder what could have been had they kept their sparkling early-season form going into finals, whilst St Pauls, who were the only side to beat Hectorville all year, will be looking forward to next week's finale.

GRAND FINAL

Hectorville v St Pauls Old Scholars

SIMONDS PARK; Saturday 26th September, 2:30PM

Here we go. The grand final is set. As it should be, the two sides in the best form will meet this week in the big dance. Hectorville have only played one game in the last three weeks, having two weeks off during this finals series, so they will be well rested and ready to go. It could also hold its disadvantages, though. They have not played a lot of footy lately, so their scintillating form may have disappeared, as they will need to bring it all against a worthy opponent in St Pauls. The visitors have hit their strides at the right time, beating Blackfriars twice in this finals series and narrowly falling to Hectorville, after defeating the Hounds to end the regular season. There is literally no tomorrow after this week's clash, so both sides will be sure to leave it all on the line as they contend for the division 6 premiership this Saturday at a neutral venue in Simonds Park. Who will come out on top, and be crowned the official div 6 premier for 2020, in a season that has been so strange.

LAST WEEKS EDITORIAL:

It's Adelaide Lutheran facing off against Flinders University in the preliminary final on Saturday afternoon. Adelaide were without a doubt the second-best team all year and had a tough loss to the only team that was in front of them in Brahma Lodge when the two faced off in the semi-final last week. For Flinders, this is uncharted territory for them as they haven't played in the finals in a while and started their return to September action well by beating one of the competitions rising sides in Mitchell Park. This is a far tougher challenge in this match, Adelaide are now a seasoned finals team and have a strong combination of youth and experience in the side with their deadly kick mark run and carry game style being one of the highlights of the year. Flinders must match them at the contest if they're a chance to win here especially in finals stranger things have happened and there have been some famous upsets in recent years. Could Flinders produce one of the biggest upsets? Or will Adelaide continue their dominance and march into the Grand Final? Tune into the find out.

Prediction: Adelaide Lutheran by 25 points.

REVIEW OF THE MATCH:

Adelaide Lutheran are through to the 2020 Adelaide Football League's Division 7 Grand Final where they will play Brahma Lodge for this year's premiership after accounting for a brave Flinders University in Saturday afternoon's preliminary final. The home side burst out of the gates in the first kicking 4.3 to 0.5 to set the tone early. Flinders got on the board eventually in the second with 4 goals, but Adelaide's pressure was too much as they piled on a further 7 majors to blow the lead out to 37 points heading into the main break. Flinders get the scoring much lower in the 3rd quarter by winning the term with 4 goals much lower in the 3rd quarter by winning the term with 4 goals to Adelaide's 1 to keep them in the contest by slowly drawing back the margin but Adelaide's defence was stifling any clean ball for Flinders out of the centre which meant the scoring was a lot scrappier. Adelaide then steadied in the last term and never being fully threatened by Flinders due to their immense pressure around the ball and ultra-stingy defence. James McDowell was big for Flinders working tirelessly with 4 goals while for Adelaide, Patrick Baker, Jacob Stollznow and Rowan Miegel each had 3 majors symbolizing the spread of goalkickers and unpredictability when kicking for goal. It's 1st vs 2nd next week in the Grand Final with Brahma Lodge playing Adelaide Lutheran while Flinders' season ends there but will take positives into next season after almost making it to the big dance.

GRAND FINAL

Brahma Lodge v Adelaide Lutheran

Thomas Farms Oval (Price Memorial Oval) at 2.30pm

These sides have met three times this year. In the opening round of the season, Brahma Lodge hosted Adelaide Lutheran and won by 27-points. Their next meeting was in the South Parklands on August 8th, where the Bulldogs inflicted the Tigers only loss for the season when they triumphed by 28-points. The last meeting between the two grand final combatants was only a fortnight ago at Brahma Lodge Oval, when the Tigers won comfortably by 31-points. As much as we would like to mount a case for Lutheran, its hard to see where they will beat Brahma Lodge. Certainly Lutheran must watch Chaffey who has kicked bags of 4 and 3 goals in both of Brahma Lodge's wins against the Dogs. Other players of note for the Tigers are Karim Hrynkiw, Jack Cook, Eric Hem-Mendes, John Williams, Jack Scott, Tom Jenkins and Jarrod Upton. Those players are the match winners for the Tigers and they need to be curtailed. The coaching staff of Brahma Lodge will want to stop Jack Davies from Lutheran as he's been in superb form all season. Callum Masters, Damon Siviour, Jacob Stollznow and Tim Kidney all have the ability to be dominant. Daniel Burgess, Jacob Stollzno and Jacob Brown are all capable of kicking a winning score. Tip - Brahma Lodge by 27 points.
